Dear Mrs. Halpert:

I am enclosing herewith the Application for Extension of Time to File your 1965 income tax return. Please sign both of the enclosed forms next to the "x" and return them to me with a messenger.

With regard to the letter to Mr. George J. Dorfman, the following thoughts might be included with the letter to him:

- a) Inasmuch as the accounting firm of Lazarow & Company pay all of my personal bills I thought it might be prudent for them to file the 1965 tax returns.
- b) Inasmuch as they will be responsible for handling any tax audit for 1965 it was felt advisable for them to also prepare this return.
- c) Since Lazarow & Company are in the immediate vicinity, they can call me with regard to many aspects of my return which require clarification.

The foregoing, when included in a letter, should provide a valid basis for our filing your 1965 tax returns.

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

About a month ago I wrote you regarding the possibility of borrowing an exhibition of the work of Abraham Rattner for the period Feb. 19 - March 15, 1967 with the hope of buying one of the paintings.

It has occurred to me that perhaps it is asking too much to have all Abraham Rattner paintings and that it would be preferable to you to borrow only about seven or eight Rattners and to show them with about an equal amount of Hartley's and Knath's. Would you agree?

If so, could you tell me who the main dealers of Hartley and Knath are?

On May 4th there will be a meeting of the Sloan Committee to approve next year's program schedule. Would it be possible to hear from you by then?

Sincerely,

Richard Brauer, Curator

Fort Worth
Fort Worth 1, Texas

Dear Sam:

It was so good to hear from you. I am very sorry that you went through such a long siege of illness, but am pleased that you finally wore out the "bug" and are definitely on the mend. Indeed I can appreciate all this, as I went through a similar ordeal, and aside from being a terrible bore -- and painful -- it sure robs one of all the vitality so necessary in conducting whatever business one is engaged in.

My stay in Texas was so brief this time that I did not have an opportunity to see any of my friends. O'Keeffe had written specially asking that I pay her the courtesy of coming down to see the show, and after all these years I felt that I should, despite my utter fatigue. We had a very delightful talk and then I had to dash off to Dallas with a stop-off en route to the airport. However, I did take time out to see the Fort Worth Art Center and was disappointed because only four paintings from the permanent collection were on view at the time. As you probably know, an invited exhibition was current, and while interesting, I was disappointed not to see what the Center "stands for."

In my rush I did not see the Damburgs at the Carter Museum, but I am familiar with his work and think you are wise to acquire some examples for Fort Worth.

I will be very glad to cooperate with you in connection with your desire to acquire paintings by Dove and Stuart Davis. The latter's estate is blocked, and nothing is for sale at present, but as soon as we get the green light from the estate attorney, I will communicate with you -- I will certainly find a handsome Dove among those we have tucked away for special institutions or individuals.

Mr. William Heller
Carson, Lundin and Shaw
425 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10022

Dear Bill:

I find it most difficult to understand why the C.O. for the Gallery is being held up by the Ritz Tower architect all this time. It seems incredible that we have to wait until all the other remodeling in the building is attended to before our end of the job is approved. Suppose something happened to me or I decided to sell the Gallery or whatever. No one would be willing to sign a lease under these circumstances. In any event, the Gallery should be a completely independent matter; besides, it was completed before September and here we are still waiting because Mr. Connor or the attorney, architect or whatever is trying to make it difficult for us.

I am perfectly willing to take the plans down personally and have them approved, if necessary, as I do not like to be involved in other people's business. I have just had word that the freight elevators are being repaired or changed or something and these too are on this floor. It may be years before everything is reconditioned.

I now have a Manager, whom is taking care of all my personal and Gallery affairs and he is checking into all our insurance policies and feels that we will have a problem unless we have the C.O. and may be creating difficulties in connection with our insurance, as the liability will be unlimited under the circumstances. Won't you please advise me as to whether there is some way for us to do this directly. After all, it seems the responsibility of either our architect or his contractor or both.

I hate to bother you with this again, but I am deeply concerned and would like to get our end of it settled and will do whatever you consider best. Many thanks.

Sincerely yours,

he would have sold it himself.

estate, I found a good many works which had been tucked away in the attic, and since then Nusya has discovered many others. The majority, of course, are small in dimensions but give a very delightful cross-section of his art career. This show will be intimate and, I think, very handsome. We have had the early paintings cleaned, and all of them framed with larger mats and chic metal strips. I also thought it would be interesting to include a few examples of "Yolk art" objects and at least one Shaker piece in order to create a background for his own environment.

While the estate has not as yet been settled and the items shown will not be for sale, I felt that it would be valuable as a means of keeping Shaefer before the public. Artists in America die out so rapidly unless they are kept before the public at a time when one sensation after another is presented, both in museums and in galleries. The memorial exhibition is not scheduled for quite a long time, but this will in no way interfere with the major show.

As it is not customary to have a preview cocktail party for a deceased artist and I do want his close friends to see the show in peace and in advance, I thought up what everyone considers a very good gimmick. You know, of course, that there is a reel the Westinghouse TV Company made -- the over-all educational color film entitled "The Artist's Eye." Mr. Pack, the President of the Company, was in the other day paying for a Shahn he purchased and I suggested the idea to him. He very generously offered to present me with the reel. I have already arranged with Jensen for a screen and operator who will run film from time to time in our private showroom so that it does not interfere with the exhibition. Naturally, I expect Saundy and you to join our small party on Monday, May 2nd, from 5 to 7 p.m., etc. However, I trust I will see you before this occasion, Will.

With fond regards,

EGL:ep

April 12, 1966

Dear Adele:

I was so glad to hear from you, but was surprised to learn of the reference to my "silence" as I did write you not too long ago and used the address that you gave me.

My health is okay, but I am still suffering from a case of exhaustion, which no doctor can cure. I plan to take a week off after the current exhibition closes and just get out of this hell-hole. I will probably end up in Atlantic City or some other similar dull spot of the same sort. In any event, I will get some fresh air and will not take the Ediphone or any other gimmick along so that I can get that much-needed rest which is two years overdue.

The current show is very handsome and we are following it with an exhibition of small paintings and drawings which Charles Sheeler either hoarded or gave to Musya. It will not be an impressive exhibition, but I hope the intimate quality will capture the public - if not the press. That leaves only one more show before we close for the summer - thank heavens. There's a possibility that Albert will come out to Newtown with me, although I haven't discussed this recently; but in any event I will be there and, as you know, that is one place in the world where I can drop all my problems and relax in the atmosphere of the 18th century, which I am sure was much more pleasant than the current period - and particularly so in New York, which has become a dreadful, hideous place.

You too are a dope, working as hard as your letters indicate. Maybe we should both go back to Odessa and become Commissars in our different departments, with the Mushicks handling all the details for us. Nobody will know the difference.

I am delighted that you plan to be back the latter part of April and look forward with great anticipation to seeing you. Do let me know well in advance so that I can arrange my time accordingly - that is, in relation to the duties you have outlined. Meanwhile,

My love,

April 19, 1966

Ankrum Gallery
910 N. La Cienega Blvd.

Dear Joan:

I was simply delighted to hear from you. It has been a long time indeed since we have had an exchange of correspondence.

You know, of course, that I have been very ill during the past two years with an appropriate ending of that era in the form of an operation which was successful in reducing the excessive pain I suffered during that period and the long blanks of memory engendered by that condition. However, the combination of moving all our possessions from 51st Street to our new home and supervising the reconstruction (with current workmen, God help us) gave me no time for my usual summer vacation prior to the operation, and of course the accumulation of work during this entire period made it impossible for me to take my usual winter vacation in Hawaii. So here I am, still at my post and way, way behind in my work. As a matter of fact, I have spent this entire weekend (it is now Sunday midnight) at our little Ediphone, dictating away a mile a minute, and I am glad that I have an opportunity at last to write to you.

I am glad that our most recent sale of a Broderson has been paid for by the client and by us. As a matter of fact, I think there are still a few straggling ends in previous sales and our new bookkeeper, who is a real pro, is at work trying to organize the books after the mess made by the previous girl, whom I did not supervise for obvious reasons. Everything is now being organized, and I hope that by the 1st of June we will be functioning as we did for 37 years prior to this recent nasty episode of illness, etc. You will then get -- or before -- a complete report, and I will also be in a better position to know what plans we can make for the following season. Dear Blaine:

I am so sorry to have delayed sending you the information you requested. This has been a wild period in the gallery and I'm in my apartment this beautiful Sunday attending to my accumulated correspondence.

I'm listing below the insurance values on the two pictures, assuming these belong to you. If they are the property of the Museum, we should write a more official appraisal letter and will do so if you advise me accordingly.

CONDITIONS for EXHIBITING under the AUSPICES of KVAA

1. All works for exhibit must be properly labelled, in duplicate. The first is forwarded to the gallery as stipulated, the second is attached to the back of the entry.
2. Persons exhibiting in invitational one-man or joint shows may substitute a list of works, stating title, medium, and value of each entry, for the individual labels mailed in. An address list for opening receptions should be forwarded with this list. Biographic information and some description of the works to be submitted for invitational shows must be in the hands of the Exhibit Committee four weeks in advance of an opening, to allow for proper publicity. This is at the request of the newspapers.
3. Entries must be at Harlow Gallery, or other designated place, by 4:00 P.M. of the day prior to the opening of a show, unless other arrangements have been made with the Exhibit Committee.
4. Costs of transportation to and from the gallery or other designated place is the responsibility of the artist or his agent.
5. Commission to KVAA on all sales resulting from a show will be 25% of the sale price. All sales are subject to the state sales tax, which is collected by KVAA at the time of sale.
6. Works not sold are to be removed from the gallery within seven days of the closing of the show. Insurance and limited space prevent KVAA from assuming responsibility for works left for a longer time.
7. Artists interested in loaning their works for the Rental Program, or in accepting divided payments for works sold should so stipulate below.
8. The Exhibit Committee reserves the right to reject any work deemed unsuitable for display.

Submission of entries for shows assumes acceptance of these conditions.

Dear Mr. Boeye:

Upon receipt of a copy of the letter sent to you by Leemarie Barrows of Look Magazine together with your original request for the use of Ben Shahn's drawing of Gandhi, based on a reproduction which appeared in the magazine, I tried to reach Mr. Shahn who, of course, has to agree to any use of his work before we may give permission accordingly, but to date have been unsuccessful. However, I hope to hear from him in the very near future. No doubt you have read reports of meetings held with our Attorney General Lefkowitz, who is trying to help curb the unsolicited reproductions of works of art. New rulings are being planned to facilitate future activities, which in many cases were perpetrated without permission of the artists or their agents. Consequently, we are not in a position to take on any responsibility until this is effected or until the artist gives his permission in writing.

As soon as I can discuss the matter with Ben Shahn, I will communicate with you regarding the matter and will advise you whether publication of this reproduction in Mrs. Hoogeveen's book will be permitted.

Sincerely yours,

ECH/tm

Dear Mr. Rettig:

As you suggested, I wrote to Mr. Dorfman - gently.

I found a folder of gifts made during 1965, including a number of receipts. Whether or not these had been entered I wouldn't know. I also have a complete file of bills for medical services, way beyond those entered in the book. Rather than have them forwarded to you have a moment to see what material you can use

Many thanks for your cooperation.

Dear Edith:

This letter is, I am afraid long overdue. First of all, I want to thank you for your very generous cooperation with us in connection with our "Inner Circle" exhibition next fall, and in particular for your very gracious reception of Mr. Nielsen on the occasion of his last visit when I was ill.

If it is not demanding too much of your good graces, we would like to submit the following requests.

④ O William Zorach "Leo Ornstein - Piano Concert" 1918 $600.-
D Mitchell Siporin "Gangster's Funeral with Jack Levine and Al Capone" 1957 NFS - Inv. 1500.
D Charles Demuth "The Purple Pup" 1918 ? NFS w.c. (Call) (Van Beek) NFS 125w..
Yoshio Kuniyoshi "Portrait of William Gropper" 1938
C-T Robert Osborn "Portrait of Zero Mostel as Rhino" 1955 175 w.c. 700

These would all add greatly to both the quality and interest of our show and I hope that they will be available.

I'll be in New York again late in the spring with Mrs. Will Ross, who is again looking for sculpture. She is still in the $5,000 category, but perhaps when she sees what she can get for more, she might be persuaded. She has in fact already given us the money, but wants to be included in the looking, which is all right with me. Our other project for a piece of sculpture in memory of Harry Lynde Bradley has been put in abeyance for awhile. The whole thing got very complicated which I will explain to you when I see you. I'm looking forward to that, of course, and hope our next visit will be soon. Meanwhile, my best.

Mr. Robert Dorfman

Dear Mr. Dorfman:

Our current show has attracted such a large audience that this, plus a shortage of employees, has increased my pile of paper work to such a degree that I really haven't had a chance to locate the form you sent me.

After making a very complete search, I called the Business Manager I engaged to take care of all my affairs and found that he had these forms together with all your preparatory papers. He has also gone over all the other material in my possession and is having one of his clerks pay my personal bills, etc., relieving me of all the details.

When I called him about returning this form I was told that the firm is preparing my 1965 tax returns inasmuch as they will be responsible for handling any tax audit for 1965, etc.
And so, I am in this embarrassing position, but since they are in the immediate vicinity and are handling everything else, I suppose it is best to let it ride as is. I am sure you will understand.

Won't you please send me a bill and accept my gratitude for all that you have done to make life simpler.

Best regards.

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

Thank you very much for your letter and for your willingness to make the Arthur Dove available for our circus exhibition. Inasmuch as the exhibition opens next Thursday and the installation is well along, I think it best if we forego the pleasure of having the Dove. Since the date of my first letter we have found a few worthy things in local collections which are appropriate and the show seems to be shaping up well. Our budget will be spared a bit, and you will not have to go to the trouble of getting the shipment off to us. Again, my thanks for your offer of assistance.

We will be sorry, of course, not to have the print exhibition but can certainly understand that conditions have been difficult for you. The move to the new gallery would have been an horrendous chore under the best of circumstances and certainly you have had other complications to cope with. I hope that all now goes well and that you continue to enjoy the new quarters.

We do hope to have the pleasure of seeing you out here in the not too distant future.

Dear Mrs. Halpert,

I have been told that you might be able to tell me something about the work of Márta Taipale, that a few years ago you handled a number of her more important pieces. It is for this reason that I write you.

I am at present working on the arrangements for a small loan exhibit of Finnish pictorial weavings. This will be held in early June at the Denver Art Museum. The works of four weavers will be shown: Eva Anttila, Dora Jung, Laila Karttunen, and Márta Taipale. To obtain information about the first three is a relatively simple matter. One has only to apply to the more or less central sources in Finland. Miss Taipale, however, is elusive. Because of the fact that she lived in the United States, there are no such central sources. I have been able to obtain very little information about her work. Thus, anything that you could tell me about her would be very much appreciated. I am interested in bibliography, biography and, most especially, in information concerning the whereabouts of her pieces in the United States. In particular, would you happen to know which museums in Texas and Chicago have pieces by Miss Taipale?

I thank you for any help which you can give me and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Miss Nora Fisher

750 North Lincoln Memorial Drive
Milwaukee 2, Wisconsin

Dear Tracy:

It was good to hear from you. I am very sorry that you have been ill. So have I, which will give us a delightful opportunity of swapping clinical notes on your next visit.

The paintings you requested for your exhibition, INNER CIRCLE, will be available for you and we are entering these on our exhibition chart to make sure they will not be lent elsewhere during that period. However, the Kuniyoshi PORTRAIT OF WILLIAM GROPPER is no longer in our possession, but I feel strongly that it should be included in your show and would suggest that you write directly to Mr. Lester Avnet, whose address is 1271 Sixth Avenue, New York. I will drop him a note as well, if you so desire.

Incidentally, there are two versions of the PURPLE PUP by Charles Demuth. I retained one in my collection. This includes a portrait of an artist whose name I cannot recall, but the version which includes Marcel Duchamp was sold by us to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. I am sure that Perry Rathbone will be glad to lend that example. If not, I will try to trace the name of the artist in our version.

I am so pleased that you are planning to be in New York and look forward to seeing you. Of course I will do all I can to cooperate in interesting Mrs. Will Ross in a sculpture. I might suggest in advance that John Storrs, who was rediscovered by us in 1965, would be a most exciting addition to your collection. In any event, when you are here I can show you an excellent cross-section of this great pioneer's sculpture.

Best regards,

Sincerely yours,

EGB/tm

Gentlemen:

I am currently engaged in a fine arts appraisal which contains the work described below. This watercolor bears the labels from your gallery ca. 1933 when it was 113 West 13th Street.

Description:

Artist: Nicolai Cikovsky
No. 58
Title: THE BROOK
Size: 17 x 21-1/2 inches
Medium: Watercolor
Price 150

The watercolor is signed at lower right and dated 1929.

Any information you can give me regarding the painter beyond the brief mention in Benetit would be greatly appreciated. Also I would appreciate learning the estimated current value of this picture. In fairness to an artist I hesitate to place nominal values on current works is accurate information is obtainable.

I remember my past association with the Gallery and Miss Halpert with great and nostalgic pleasure.

Dear Mrs. Paddock:

I am finally sending you a belated reply to your letter of April 1st because I did not dare commit myself without checking various requests we have had for exhibitions of Rattner's works.

I now have a fairly complete date record and feel that we can arrange for such an exhibition during November of 1966. I am enclosing catalogues for the two most recent one-man shows of his work held at this Gallery. These contain not only a listing of the pictures shown but also biographical data and representations in public institutions.

No doubt you will want someone from the Lamont Gallery to pay us a visit to make the specific selection. I am well aware that each area of a specific interest varies from others, particularly in the case of an artist who is not a "one-image" artist. In any event, I hope to hear from you shortly as to your wishes in the matter.

Dear Dr. Moskowitz:

Much as I would like to cooperate with you, we have practically nothing for sale by the artists listed for your exhibition to be held from June 15th to July 31st.

Both the Davis and the Sheeler estates are blocked and until the attorneys give us the green light announcing that the Federal release has been received by them, we are not permitted to send anything out of our premises.

The Kuniyoshi estate has been sold out completely, with the exception of a few drawings and prints. If either of the latter are satisfactory, I would be happy to cooperate. Furthermore, if the few remaining pictures we have by the other artists listed are returned from various exhibitions current at present, we will not be able to make the loans requested. However, by June 15th I hope that some of these will be returned from these major exhibitions, including one recently sent out to the Smithsonian Institution. Since the show called ROOTS OF ABSTRACT ART IN AMERICA, held at that Institution some months ago, it seems that every museum and gallery is eager to include these artists and since our stock per se is extremely limited, we are in this most unfortunate position.

Please get in touch with me about the middle of May, so that I can give you the latest report.

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

Thank you for your letter of April 19th.

You have undoubtedly received my letter that was mailed that same week. In it I described the gallery which I might add is versatile enough to adjust to a variety of types and sizes of shows. We have display panels that can be set up for shows of 140 - 165 running feet plus additional wall surfaces. They can also be used as room dividers and can thus cut down the apparent gallery size.

We would appreciate as complete a show as you can arrange. Mr. Shahn will undoubtedly find much of the discussion centering on his work. However, I wasn't anticipating the need to get loans from other sources. This would add to your inconvenience and I can only say that we will appreciate anything you decide to compile.

Sincerely,

Arch Leean

Dear Miss Halpert:

Mr. Jospe has transmitted your letter of February 24 to me for acknowledgment. We wish to thank you for your graciousness and for your desire to cooperate with us in the presentation of our exhibit on Calligraphy.

As you will note from the enclosed copy of letter to Miss Katherine Kline, we have asked that a member of the Jewish Museum to visit your gallery and make a selection of the Ben Shahn pieces. After the selection has been made we would appreciate your sending the pieces on to us and at the same time letting us know when we may expect them. Please also give us information as to the valuation for insurance purposes. We can make no decision on prints at this time.

We trust the work can now be expedited without too much delay.

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

I am preparing for publication by the Thomas Y. Crowell Company a book for young readers aged 12 to 16 which will reproduce about 50 paintings and drawings depicting Negro subjects, by outstanding artists, both Negro and white. There will be a page of text about each artist and the work.

May I have your permission to reproduce The Church is the Union Hall and The Welders by Ben Shahn in this book in the United States and elsewhere?

If it is necessary to secure the permission of another owner, would you please tell me the name and address?

I will be glad to credit the source in whatever form you wish the credit worded; and, while selections may be added or eliminated in subsequent printings, I shall of course follow your instructions regarding cropping.

If, as far as you know, this painting or drawing has been previously reproduced, in a periodical or book, would you please tell me where?

Could you supply me with an Ektachrome or Kodachrome of the painting suitable for reproduction? And with a glossy black and white photo? What would the rental fee be and how long may we keep the transparency?

Sincerely yours,

Milton Meltzer

We have spent almost as much in correspondence, book-keeping, telephone calls and what not trying to collect this sum. I don't think you would like the publicity involved in a public suit for the amount involved and would suggest that you send us a check immediately or, if preferable, coax the donee to return the picture to you so that it, in turn, may be returned to us and to the artist's estate.

This is definitely the final notice and I don't intend to communicate with you any further about it without the due process of law and publicity. Again, I am sending this letter via Registered Mail, Return Receipt Requested so there is no misunderstanding regarding this unique experience in my career of 39 years duration. Unless I hear from you, or rather receive the check before April 18th, proceedings will be instituted. Incidentally, as an artist yourself, you can appreciate how shocking this delay of five years will appear in the field of the cultural activities.

Mr. Robert W. Pradt, Art Editor
Country Beautiful
24198 West Bluemound Road
Waukesha, Wisconsin 53186

Dear Mr. Pradt:

mj/HB

I find your project most interesting and will be very glad to cooperate in sending you photographs you may desire. Today, with so many schools in American Art and specialized areas, I think the idea of selecting a specific area is a fascinating one.

Actually, the majority of the artists on our roster are and have been associated with the New York school and the older group has had a tremendous influence not only in the East but throughout the country.

In the breakdown below you will find the names of artists whose main interest was associated with Greater New York, Brooklyn, Long Island, etc., despite the fact that several were born abroad or in other states of the union.

Stuart Davis
Charles Demuth
Arthur Dove
Yasuo Kuniyoshi
George L.K. Morris
Georgia O'Keeffe
Abraham Rattner
Ben Shahn (and New Jersey)
Charles Sheeler (and Connecticut)
Niles Spencer
Joseph Stella
Max Weber
William Zorach

In addition, Marsden Hartley, who divided his time between New York and Maine in the summer. Georgia O'Keeffe was born in Wisconsin but spent most of her time as an artist in New York City - later spending some months in Mexico and now a permanent resident in New Mexico as of about ten years ago. John Marin was born and lived in New Jersey spent summers in Maine and painted - as is well-known - a great number of New York City subjects throughout his lifetime. In any event, all of these artists established their reputations in New York City and were represented by New York galleries exclusively.

Dear Edith,

Your check for a sizable amount couldn't have arrived at a more critical time, practically to the hour.

I have put off writing to you (though I've periodically started letters I never finished) as I wanted to wait until I was confident that Morris was really functioning, so that I could make some kind of pronouncement as to the time he would be ready for a show.

Now I am happy to say that he is doing exciting new things, and will be ready for a fall exhibition. It is in a way fortuitous that he was obliged to postpone his European trip, as in doing so he has reevaluated many things in his past visual and emotional experiences, and I know you will be more than pleased with the results.

One of the major themes of the new work is of Lizzie Borden and "Fall River Legend." Twelve years ago Morris saw the New York City Ballet Company perform this work, and was deeply moved by the subject. I am glad he waited until now to further develop this theme. He has completed many pastels and mixed media, (see enclosed list) and will begin the oils this week. The paintings have a marvelous quality of hardcore rural America unlike any other paintings I know--but always present is that strangeness and mystery characteristic of Morris' work.

Another major theme is of Garcia Lorca and bull-fighting motifs. His work shows another marked advance, I'm sure you'll agree.

Confidentially, we had a worrisome period, but this has almost always been the situation that exists with Morris just before he begins a productive period. Actually, he is happier now than I have ever known him to be, and deeply involved in his work.

We have had a rather strenuous winter under much pressure. It has weighed heavily on our minds that Morris was unable to come through with the spring exhibition he had promised you. Of course Morris wanted a show this spring especially since he had told you he would be ready and until recently whenever I would bring up the subject of the show, he said he felt he could make it by spring. In the past after working on a theme within himself for many months or even years he has sometimes surprised us with a sudden spurt of demoniac speed and produced paintings as if by magic. Naturally I have wanted to advise you but as each day and week passed I was unable until very recently to arrive at a specific conclusion, and I guess the same was true for Morris.

Dear Mr. Avnet:

Under date of March 15, 1966, your secretary sent to Mrs. Edith Halpert of The Downtown Gallery 1,375 shares of Avnet Electronics Corp. common stock, in the name of The Downtown Gallery Inc., which the letter stated was to cover the purchase of $30,200 made by Mrs. Joan Avnet, asking that the shares be sold and the proceeds applied against the price. We have since been advised by Mrs. Halpert that the total purchase price owing by Mrs. Avnet is $33,700, represented by invoice, dated December 14, 1965, for $30,200, and invoice, dated April 5, 1966, for $3,500, both addressed to Jean Avnet Galleries, which we understand is owned by Mrs. Avnet.

We further understand that the foregoing 1,375 shares are to be sold and the net proceeds are to be applied against $33,700 owing, and that if the net proceeds are less than $33,700, Mrs. Avnet and you will make good the difference, and if the net proceeds exceed $33,700, the excess is to be remitted to Mrs. Avnet.

Will you and Mrs. Avnet please confirm the foregoing on the copy of this letter and return the same to us in the enclosed envelope.

Dear Mrs. Wolf:

It was good to hear from you, and I hope that you will pay us a visit when you are next in Manhattan.

Meanwhile, I have been checking with a number of dealers but have been unable to obtain any commitments from them. The only person I think it would be advisable for you to communicate with is Mr. John Clancy of the Bahn Gallery. He, I am sure, will be interested in re-purchasing the Charles Burchfield painting.

Since I have been limiting myself exclusively to our current roster and I am not planning to make any additions to the Gallery at this stage of the game, I would prefer not to become involved with the other artists on your list, all of whom are of importance but will have to be referred to their current dealers. On the other hand, any of the artists whose names appear below (at the bottom of the letterhead) will of course interest me and I will be very glad to re-purchase at a profit to you the work of these people who are associated with the Gallery.

My best regards to you and Mr. Wolf.

If you will be kind enough to send me your bill, I will arrange payment in full as quickly as possible.

The Sheeler drawing was accepted by the Board as a loan with the understanding that we will be given first refusal when the estate is settled. We will, of course, return the drawing in time for your show later this month.

Your card was inadvertently misplaced, but in any event, it arrived considerably after the Rattner exhibition closed. Furthermore, a number of the paintings were sold during the exhibition. However, I am giving you the minimum and maximum figures and, if you would like photographs of several paintings within a specific price range, I will be glad to have prints made for you and mail them within the next week or so.

On the other hand, if you are planning to be in New York at any time before the Gallery closes for the two summer months (July and August) I will be very glad to show you what we have in our possession - both paintings and drawings as well as his graphics.

Please let me know your wishes in the matter.

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

Leslie Cheek from the Virginia Museum was here the other day and was delighted to see our Sheeler STEEL CROTON which is the sketch for their picture bought while I worked there.

I am going off to England on a Fulbright for a year and would like, if possible, to use up the $2000 credit we have with you for the second John Marin watercolor THE HILL which you have of ours. Fortunately, Agnes Claflin has retired so it ought to be simpler to find something now as my colleagues do not have to actually approve everything I buy but do like to be consulted. I am looking for something between $2000 and $3000 - in other words we can afford to add at the most $1000 to the credit. Shahn, O'Keeffe and Demuth are our biggest gaps and I hope you have some ideas.

90 Park Avenue
New York, New York

Dear Madam:

Having been unable to reach Mr. Pack, it occurs to me that he may be away and that perhaps you can answer my question for me.

Mr. Pack purchased a Ben Shahn drawing POLITICIAN from us some time ago. There was a question as to whether we would deliver this to him in New York and charge him the 5% sales tax or ship it to his home in which case the sales tax would be only 2%, but he would have to pay the collect shipping charges. As we are most anxious to effect delivery of all items which have been sold, would you be good enough to let us know Mr. Pack's decision in this matter.

Many thanks for your trouble and your courtesy.

Sincerely yours,

Tracy Miller

Dear Mr. Weingarten:

There seems to be some confusion in connection with the delivery of the Abbott Pattison sculpture 5 FIGURE LAND-SCAPE for the Hudson Guild.

A lady from your office, in response to my question, told me that the sculpture should be held here until we were notified further about where and when to deliver it. Then, Mrs. Harold Uris came in to the Gallery and asked that it be delivered to her at 941 Park Avenue. When we attempted delivery there, no one knew anything about it and there was no one to accept the sculpture.

Just so you are aware, it has been returned here and once again we will hold it for you until further word as to delivery.

Thank you for your attention.

Dear Edith:

Our Superintendent, David Miller, will pick up the Broderson on Thursday, April 28th, along with a number of other paintings that have recently been purchased for the Michener Collection elsewhere in New York.

What you say is disturbing, in that I gather you have not yet received Michener's check. On the other hand, he has been repeating, in writing and verbally, that he is so happy that the Collection now has a Broderson, and he is particularly happy with the one whose photograph I was able to show him.

I will be in New York all day tomorrow, Tuesday, the 26th. I will phone you up to see if your schedule permits us to get together. I certainly would enjoy it.

Dear Mr. Hall:

We will be very glad indeed to cooperate with you in your project.

The enclosed catalogue and publicity release which was sent out at the time will give you complete data about the exhibition of paintings and drawings inspired by the ghastly crime perpetrated in Dallas. All the pictures included refer specifically to the assassination, but of course are symbolic rather than realistic, as you will see when you will have an opportunity to visit the Gallery and examine the photographic records relating to this show together with the reports which appeared in the press. You may then choose what photographs you think most desirable for your purposes.

If you plan to come in in the near future, I would suggest that you telephone in advance and make certain that we will have the material readily available for you -- or if you prefer, you may send a representative who would also have to make arrangements in advance.

most important factor is that I will at least have a summer vacation, as we will close during July and August, and I will not have to be on tap daily to open up for the workmen as I did last summer. By fall I expect to be full of energy and with some fresh ideas.

I too am very pleased that Morris has been well enough to work steadily at last, and also that an American theme has provided new subject matter for him. Please tell him that it was just as well not to have had a show this spring, as I could not have handled it at my regular pace. Furthermore, New York was pretty messy this season for a combination of reasons, the most important of course being the concerted promotion of POP and OF, with all the sensationalism that accompanies these repetitious images. Added to this mess, there was a sudden sprouting of galleries run by chains, department stores, and everything but the subway stations, with reproductions sold as originals, cut-rate hand-painted pictures, etc., to say nothing of the rigged auctions and accent on "art for investment." Gradually some of this is lessening, and I hope that in due time we will come to a semi-normal routine in our field.

Once in a while do send me a photograph or two of any of the paintings Morris has completed, so that I may start thinking about them and develop some ideas accordingly. In any event, I am very eager to hear how everything is out your way and hope that you will have occasion to be in New York in the near future. Do let me know if and when you can make it.

Our love to you and to Morris and -- not to be forward, affectionate greetings to Bill.

Mr. William Lane

Hi, stranger:

My, it has been a mighty long time since I have had the pleasure of seeing Sandy and you! On your last visit to the Gallery I was unfortunate enough to be away, but I had hoped that you would make a repeat call long before this. I miss you both very much, and as you know have been spending most of my time in this building, working all day in the Gallery and evenings plus weekends in the apartment. I certainly look forward to July and August, when I will really close up shop and have a peaceful time in my favorite vacation spot -- Newtown. I have had such bad luck in finding an assistant willing to take over a good part of the management and certainly looking after the many details involved in this mad business. At this point, I have just about given up hope, as I continually hear the same complaint from other dealers around New York and elsewhere. Everyone seems to feel that this job merely calls for socializing with attractive clients or visitors but sees no reason to follow through on records, etc.

As you know, we are the service station for the nation, and deal with the many new museums that have cropped up in the past few years, all -- with very few exceptions -- headed by nincompoops who have to be educated during every visit, as their knowledge about modern American art dates as of a period starting in 1955. In addition, we have the major institutions going through our archives material and choosing numerous works for specialized exhibitions involving the so-called "first wave" in America. All this is so time-consuming that I am always in a state of complete exhaustion. This explains the few one-man shows we have had, but it did put some life into the Gallery with the last two exhibitions. But what I want to write about specifically -- after my long tale of woe -- is that I decided to have a special exhibition of the paintings and drawings which Charles Sheeler had at home as well as the many smaller paintings he had given these past few years to Maysa. When I was asked to appraise the

Dear Alice Williams

I meant to call you daily in response to your very charming note, but believe it or not, it is utterly impossible for me to make a commitment for any specific date, as I am still in a state of flux, both physically and Gallery-wise. I am sure Bill must have reported my current peculiarities to you.

While we are tucked away below the street floor, everyone of us is preoccupied every moment of the day and, as far as I am concerned, this includes evenings and nights as well. Today is the first Sunday I dared leave the building to see the Turner exhibition and the Lipman Collection at the Whitney. I feel about 20 years younger as a result of getting some fresh air and chit-chatting about everything but the Gallery and its artists. The tremendous excitement about American art and the unfortunate fact that I have been involved with it for so many years, has turned us into a service station for the entire nation and, in my present state, I find it most difficult.

Indeed, I can't think of anything I would enjoy more than joining you at dinner on Friday, April 15th. I hope I can make it, but won't know until almost the last minute. You will hear from me via telephone early on Friday, when I will be in a better position to know whether I can actually make the trip. My doctor is very firm and I find that every time I disobey him, I can't function for the next few days.

I certainly hope that I will see you at 8 o'clock and, as I mentioned, will phone you early in the day.

Affectionately,

EOB/tm

Mr. Charles E. Buckley, Director

St. Louis, Missouri 63105

Dear Charley:

I am so pleased that your Board agreed on the acquisition of the Miles Spencer painting, despite the fact that it leaves us with only one unsold example by this artist. I am still old-fashioned enough to be happy about finding the ideal home for an important work of art.

The Shaefer exhibition I mentioned is coming along in grand style with the early painting cleaned superbly by our restorer and handsome frames affixed on the entire group. Musya Shaefer keeps finding an occasional addition to the group, and at this point we have an excellent survey of the more intimate selection bequeathed by the artist. We decided to include several of the folk art paintings which Charles had collected, together with one example of the Shakers' craft to suggest the environment in which he produced his work and the sources which indirectly influenced or affected his sense of perfection.

Also, because I wanted some sort of celebration since we could not have the traditional reception for a deceased artist, I have arranged for a "side-show" to be held in the showroom so that it won't interfere with viewing the paintings. Several days ago when the President of the Westinghouse TV Company was here, I coyly suggested borrowing the TV reel of the Shaefer paintings produced several years ago. Mr. Pack (the President) not only concurred but offered to present this reel to the Gallery. I am sure that the few close friends of Shaefer will find this of great interest, and at the same time the viewing will offer an excuse for the special invitation which we are extending to a very limited group. Naturally, both Musya and I would love to have you with us on that occasion. This will take place on Monday (5 to 7 p.m.), May 2nd, preceding the public opening. Do try to come.

Dear Friend,

The 8th edition of the Directory is about to go to press.

Since you took a 3-time contract at a low rate of $ 150.00 when Miss Polster called on you, the Directory circulation has increased and readers in 124 countries now depend on the Directory as the prime source of information regarding the art and antique world.

Your current ad is still in circulation (for the third year); your 8th edition ad will run at least 24 months.

A copy of your current ad ins enclosed. Please advise:

1. Shall we rerun this ad as is?
2. Would you like to change the contents of the ad?
3. Would you like to take a larger ad in the Directory?
4. Since the Directory (Volume II) will not appear until October 1966, would you prefer prepaying (and taking a 3% anticipation) or being bILLED net for payment in November 1966?

Volume I (Museums, Artiste, Collectors, etc.) is now ready. As soon as we receive your confirmation and instructions, we shall ship it to you as part of your subscription.

Do help us to keep the American Section as full of information and as inviting as possible to local, interstate, and international buyers.

Your cooperation in the above is much appreciated. The one and only International Directory of Arts is doing a unique service for you and with your help. Once again we ask that you join us in this herculean undertaking of reaching as many people as possible with valuable information concerning the art and antique world.

Please advise promptly regarding your participation.

Dear Mr. Halley:

In response to your letter, I can advise you that Budworth checks every item very carefully when picking up shipments here or elsewhere and that the drawing by Rattner was sent to you, at least from New York, in good condition. When it arrived at the Gallery after your exhibition, there was a definite tear in the picture and fortunately we have an excellent "paper" restorer who mounted it on rag board and it looks fine after the restoration. Because of all the circumstances involved, he gave us an extremely low estimate for the job - amounting to $50., which we promptly paid. I am now enclosing a photostat of his bill, so that you may present it to your insurance broker.

And so, best regards.

Dear Miss Seth:

Many thanks for sending us the April 1st issue of very handsome indeed.

I wonder if we could trouble you to send a copy, if you have not already done so, to Mr. Rattner himself.
I know he would appreciate having it. His address is

Dear Mrs. Paepcke:

I have made a personal check of our mailing list and want to assure you that hereafter you will receive our announcements at the above address. We expect to have two more exhibitions before the Gallery closes for the summer months
- July and August - both very special in concept.

The first, opening on May 3rd, will comprise paintings and drawings which Charles Sheeler had reserved for himself and Mrs. Sheeler. While none will be for sale until the estate is cleared, it will present an interesting context, including some unfinished works, etc. The second show will be devoted to American Folk Art.

I hope you will come in before we close for the summer and see not only the special exhibitions in the Main Gallery but also our roster, which is always represented with examples in the other galleries. I look forward to your visit.

Dear Marion:

No doubt by this time you know why I did not answer your late November and December letters, and as a matter of fact I still have a hangover from the long illness, the operation and the whole process of moving to the new quarters and supervising the rebuilding program in my condition at the time. Furthermore, I have stacks of papers, all hangovers from that period which I am finally attacking this weekend, Saturday evening through Monday evening, hoping to get straightened out. The post-operative exhaustion lingers on, but I have two months coming during July and August when I plan to relax completely in my pre-Revolutionary house in Newtown, Connecticut, where I manage to achieve a sense of peace equalled by no other area of the world. From there on, I should be human again and functioning normally. What a bore it is to be such a schmoe for such a long period and to have no truly managerial help to take over the major and minor details. But, American art being as popular as it is, I guess our inefficiency may not be noticeable, particularly with the deluge of new, inexperienced dealers throughout the country. Consequently, I am no longer beating my breast but just trying to clean up and relax for the future, as I do have a responsibility to a group of artists, widows and children. Wouldn't the last make a good song title for one of the new discotheques popping up by the hour throughout New York.

Somewhere along the line I heard that Ed Stasack was coming to see you and would arrange for affixing his signature to one painting and repairing the frame. Has this been attended to? I have not communicated with him for some time, as he knew that I was not functioning properly. Next weekend I will write him directly, but meanwhile I would very much like to know whether he attended to his chores. Please let me know.

I will also check with our bookkeeper to ascertain whether or not both pictures have been paid for and will advise you

Dear Miss Kline:

I thank you very much for your letter of February 9 to Mr. Erwin Jospe, which he has transmitted to me. I was not able to answer your question regarding the possibility of showing the exhibit at the Jewish Museum, and I am still unable to do so due to the fact that we are in the process of getting additional pieces from various sources. Once we have everything assembled we can then make up a standard form and send it to the contributors requesting their permission.

We feel very flattered indeed that you have asked for the show, and I would like you to do me a favor. In the enclosed letter to the Downtown Gallery you will see that we are in need of an expert in New York to select a number of Ben Shahn pieces. We would be very thankful if you would be so kind as to arrange this as soon as is convenient. We will inform the Gallery that immediately the pieces have been selected they be shipped directly to us.

Thank you for informing Miss Kleban at the Library of our project, and thank you in advance for your cooperation.

I have just dispatched one letter to you in the Now, it has just occurred to us, as we prepare to pack the painting, that, since you are having a new frame made, perhaps you would prefer to have us throw away the present frame here rather than ship it framed, thus saving on shipping charges through reduced weight. This frame is quite heavy.

Would you be good enough to let us know about this right away. Again, many thanks for your attention.

Dear Adelyn:

The prints you selected are all packed and ready to be picked up. Unfortunately, this place continues to be a madhouse and I have not had an opportunity to get to the warehouse to find the other prints that I promised to you as gifts. When is the print collection to be shown and how urgent are the deliveries? Won't you please let me know. Incidentally, we omitted two of the most important artists - Ben Shahn and Abraham Rattner, both of whom have superb prints; the latter recent lithographs in color and the former, of course, a large cross-section in black and white or colored serigraphs. These are serious omissions and I am sorry I was so remiss. I am sorry, also, that I did not have a chance to see the Fine lithograph as it looks pretty ratty in its present condition, but no doubt you have the facilities for having this attended to.

It was so good to see you and I certainly look forward to the repeat performance - the pleasure of being your guest at your charming home on the 27th. I hope I will find time to have my hair done and get me a long dress to compete with you at the opening. Meanwhile, my fond regards.

Mr. Leon Anthony Arkus, Associate Director
Museum of Art, Carnegie Institute
4400 Forbes Avenue
Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Arkus:

I am sorry that there was some confusion about the Edward Hicks. Had I looked at the related exhibition dates, this would not have occurred, since the Corcoran exhibition ends long before October or the earlier shipping date. Thus, I am now enclosing the form you requested, together with that of the Horace Pippin. As we close the Gallery during the months of July and August, I would appreciate having the pick-up postponed to September when we reopen directly after Labor Day. In any event, you might let me know when it is most convenient for you. Obviously, the Corcoran will have the Hicks in two exhibitions, since it will be included in this THREE PENNSYLVANIA SELF-TAUGHT ARTISTS show.

During our move I packed my library very carefully and since we did not have sufficient space to house the large quantity of books, everything was shipped to a warehouse close to my Connecticut home, which I have not visited since the summer before last. Thus, I cannot refer to the Selden Rodman book, which may or may not have exactly the same autobiography. I recall that I have the original handwritten manuscript as well as a later transcript which I had made and may have passed it on to him. When I get there during the summer I will refer to the material and all you will have to do is to refer to the fact that the original manuscript is in our possession, without inferring that we have any objection to its being printed and reprinted.

I will also try to check on the names of the owners of the paintings listed on page two of your letter. I seem to recall having #'s 51 and 97, but will refer to our records within the next few days. The others sound unfamiliar to me and since I do not have the Rodman book, I would suggest that you communicate with Robert Carlen, 323 South 16th Street in Philadelphia or the Galerie St. Etienne in New York, who also had an exhibition of his work or at least showed some of it at various times.

I hope your exhibition is a great success.

Sincerely yours,

Dear sirs,

I am presently at work on an anthology of the 1930's which is scheduled to appear in the fall of 1966 and which is being published by Odyssey Press. The book will contain, besides literary matter, photographs and reproductions of paintings which were done in the '30's.

I would like very much to include reproductions of two paintings, Memory of Charles River and Mental Geography by O. Louis Guglielmi, which are being exhibited at the AOA Gallery on 57th Street. The AOA Gallery suggested that I write to you concerning the possibility of obtaining a photograph or a negative of a photograph of these paintings. We of course would reimburse you for permission to use these reproductions.

I am not certain that to approach you is the most direct manner in which to go about this. If you would give me some advice or assistance, I would be most thankful.

Dear Miss Halpert:

Last summer I arranged with Mr. Abbott Pattison to have a showing of some of his works at Harlow Gallery from July 17th to August 6th. He now informs me that you are handling his work. Would it still be possible to have eight to twelve of his pieces, depending on the size, for that time or for the three weeks immediately following, that is August 7 - 27th? Our gallery usually retains 25% of the purchase price as commission on works sold, but when another gallery is involved we make other arrangements.

In view of the fact that this arrangement antedates your taking over Mr. Pattison's sales I hope it will be possible for us to have a showing of his works during one of the times stipulated. Please let me know as soon as possible what your decision will be. According to his letter Mr. Pattison is interested in showing at Harlow Gallery, if at all possible.

Dear Mrs. Halpert,

Mrs. Morris and I appreciated very much your kindness in seeing us at the end of a Saturday afternoon when we visited the Gallery a couple of weeks ago, as we indeed enjoyed looking at the Harnett's.

I wanted to tell you that we will be away from home for nearly three weeks from May 1, so we would not be able to respond to your expected letter. On the other hand, if you find it possible to set me a price for the Harnett helmet work, we ought to be able to come to a quick decision before our departure. In fact, this would be a fine surprise for my wife, since we are having a major anniversary late this month, hence all the activity. As a matter of fact, we expect to be in New York for a few hours, during the afternoon of May 2.

I trust we'll be able to work something out, and thanks again.

Sincerely, yours,

Dear Jim:

I was sorry to hear the other day that you were not feeling well and, since I have also gone through a boring illness for the past two years, I thought it would be fun if we got together and compared clinical notes. How about coming to New York and Do can keep a score to see who's ahead of the game? In any event, it would be a great treat to see you both and I hope you plan to be East in the near future.

Meanwhile, I want to report on the Hartley, which has been sent to two major exhibitions with no success. At this time in our art history, it seems that the new public in the art-buying field has developed the one-image idea about each artist, based of course on the current practice among the younger generation of painters and sculptors who work within a limited area in order to achieve a reputation. Thus, Hartley is not Hartley unless it is either early German Expressionist painting or a version of Mt. Katahdin - and I refer not only to the new so-called clientele but largely to the young curators, whose concept of modern art in America relates exclusively to what has appeared on the horizon since 1955. However, I adore YOUNG SEA DOG WITH FRIEND BILLY and, if you would accept $8000. for it, I will be delighted to send you a check by return mail.

If there is any other painting in your collection - now that you are in smaller quarters, as you wrote - with which you wish to part, please let me know, as I see signs of a coming decline in the concentration on Pop and Op - and LSD. Amen!

I hope all is well and that I will have the great pleasure of seeing you and Do in the near future.

Affectionately,

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

This will confirm the purchase by Roy Neuberger of the Patterson sculpture which he discussed with you. We understand the price is $800.

Will you please put the sculpture aside, and we will notify you about delivery. The bill should be made out to Hudson Guild Collector's Choice Committee, 420 West 26 Street, New York, N.Y. 10001. Since the Guild is a non-profit organization, it pays no sales tax.

Many thanks,

F.U.
Dear Mr. Biddle:

Forgive me for being so late in answering your letter, but no doubt you have heard reports that I have been very ill for the past two years and was finally considerably relieved thanks to a successful operation. However, what with the moving and rebuilding of our new quarters, I could not take time out for a vacation and, although well on the road to complete recovery, am entirely exhausted. This is in explanation of the slow-motion tempo at which I am functioning these days. You know, of course, that the agreement between the Corcoran and me has been revised a number of times and in each instance there is some objectionable feature added which requires editing. In my present state, it is very difficult for me to absorb the contents of any legal document. Thus, I have finally turned over all my affairs (as of two weeks ago) to a Business Manager, who will relieve me of all the details and will even arrange to pay my personal bills, etc. He now has the latest contract, which has one objectionable clause requiring revision. When that is straightened out to our mutual satisfaction, the papers will be signed.

While I have been cooperating with the Smithsonian Institution in connection with their important exhibitions and have promised them my archives material because they will have ideal facilities for papers which require conditioning for preservation, I have made no commitment to them in connection with any original works of art. This, I trust, is the "line telling (you) what the situation is".

When you are next in town, I would very much like to see you, so that we can discuss some final details.

Meanwhile, my best regards.

Sincerely yours,

KMM/tm

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

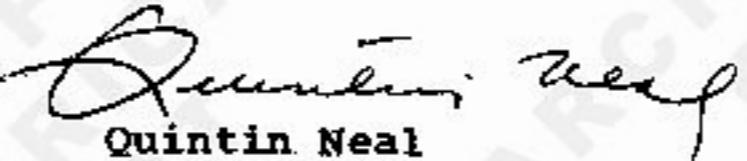

A gallery owner in San Francisco, suggested that I contact you concerning two Kuniyoshi lithographs which a customer is considering selling.

One is of four nudes, size 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 13 $\frac{1}{4}$, 32nd print of 41, dated 1928. The other is of a woman wearing a large hat, with drapes and a grand piano in the background. Size 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ - 10th print of 100, dated 1936. Both are in perfect condition.

If you are interested in buying them or know of anyone who might be, I would appreciate hearing from you. Also I have no idea as to what the present price for these would be, and would like your advise in this regards.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Quintin Neal

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

I know I have held your photographs for too long, but the staff has been considering your pictures along with several other works which are to be presented to the Trustees' acquisition committee.

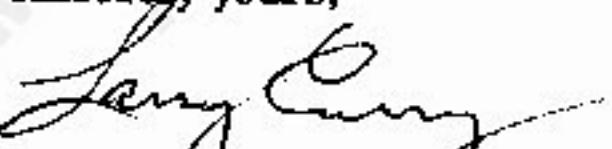

As you undoubtedly know, things have been rather unsettled here for the past few months. Just as the controversy surrounding Dr. Brown's resignation begins to settle, another great crisis arises, this time involving a "scandalous" exhibition of the works of Ed Kienholz which the County Fathers want to throw out of the Museum.

As a result of all this, the acquisitions committee has simply not been able to function. We are hopeful, however, that they will soon be mobilized so that we can start to build the collections.

For the time being, I am returning your photographs, but we are certainly still in need of pictures by Dove and Sheeler. The Trustees are aware that such works will not be available forever.

Please accept my belated thanks for your kind hospitality last summer. It was a great pleasure to chat with you and to see the paintings.

Sincerely yours,

Larry Curry

Mr. Lewis W. Story, Assistant Director
Honolulu Academy of Arts
900 South Beretania Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96814

Dear Mr. Story:

For a Gallery which has been referred to for a period of 39 years as exceptionally efficient, we have slipped woefully during the past year, but of course I am sure you know that all of this is due to the fact that I have been ill and unable to attend to the tremendous number of details connected with this "fascinating" business. This is particularly true in connection with exhibitions which I have to select personally.

During our move from 51st Street to the present quarters, I hired two "experts" to supervise the installation and proper organization of the many works of art we send to the warehouse, where we rented five storerooms in order to avoid confusion and possible damage by the temporary workmen who had been assigned to the remodeling of the new quarters. We found, in trying to locate the prints we promised for exhibition at the Honolulu Academy of Arts, that everything was misplaced and in a state of such utter confusion that, in my similar state, it was utterly impossible to make the selection there unless I spent at least two weeks with long rest periods to avoid a heart attack upon seeing how many objects had been damaged either en route or in the so-called "organization". This explains our failure to deliver the material you requested.

However, we have the Arthur Dove painting CARNIVAL available for immediate shipment if you still wish to include it in your exhibition of "Circus Material". Bernard Karfiol is no longer represented by the Gallery, but I would highly recommend his CIRCUS IN DOVER, which can be obtained by writing directly to George Karfiol at 35 Westfair Drive, Westport, Connecticut. He is the artist's son and I am sure he will be glad to cooperate with you. Meanwhile, will you please write or wire instructions regarding shipment of the Dove. A consignment invoice is enclosed so that you may have the exact data and the insurance valuation. Meanwhile, please accept my sincere apologies.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

We are looking forward to the June exhibit of Ben Shahn's pictures. As for selection, we would appreciate a variety of media, and since the conference will pose the question of an artist's responsibility in his contemporary society, a selection of Shahn's more pointed commentaries would be excellent. Our gallery is 45 x 60 and shows usually contain from 25 to 40 pictures, depending on size.

We can arrange to mat and display unframed prints and would prefer to have them shipped this way. Please insure the work for only the minimum amount the carrier allows. Our school has a fine arts floater that fully insures all exhibits to and from their destinations and we can save by not insuring these pieces twice.

We would appreciate having the exhibit shipped by motor freight direct to a Minneapolis terminal, with a note that the carrier call the consignee at destination terminal. Our school truck can then pick it up and save any possible delays on this end. We would recommend Consolidated Freightways which has terminals in Newark, New Jersey, and Minneapolis, Minnesota, and has been able to deliver previous shows promptly - less than one week.

Thank you again for your effort in arranging this exhibit.

Thank you for your kind letter of April 12. We are delighted to know that the two paintings will be available.

We are not asking Santini's to deliver the paintings here until September 26, so that it will be quite convenient for the paintings to be collected after Labor Day. Incidentally, I notice that the Pippin's collection address is given as Santini Brothers. Are we to assume that it is now in their hands?

We have ordered photographs from Geoffrey Clements, as noted on the entry forms.

In the catalogue I will of course refer to the fact that the original manuscript of the Pippin life story is in your collection.

I have already been in contact with Robert Carlen and Dr.
Kallir, but I appreciate your suggestions. It may interest you to know that the New York State Historical Association at many thanks for telling us about this.

We have a number of paintings and drawings by him relating to religious themes and, if you want to make the exhibition large in scale, we can also suggest some other paintings which are in public and private collections and will be available for exhibition. In any event, I want to send you this confirmation now and we can discuss the details when you come to visit us during your Christmas vacation. As you probably know, we maintain a complete record of each artist's work and you will have considerable reference material. We can also arrange a luncheon or dinner with the Rattners, so that you may ask him personally regarding his reaction to the idea of appearing as a speaker at the opening.

I look forward to hearing from you and more so to your visit later in the year.

Dear Miss Halpert:

I am sorry I did not have the opportunity of meeting you when I visited your gallery on my last trip to New York. Perhaps this can be arranged in the near future.

For the past several years I have been an art dealer in Miami Beach, dealing primarily in rare graphics. During this period I have observed the growth and development of this area in the field of art and I now feel the time propitious to expand my scope.

This fall I shall open a prestige gallery in Coral Gables, Florida where I intend exhibiting the works of leading contemporary artists. I would very much like to open the gallery in November with an exhibition of 'American Modern Masters', such as you represent. I was wondering if it would be feasible for your gallery to ship this type of exhibit to me, and if so, exactly what arrangements can be made at this time.

I would appreciate hearing from you as soon as convenient.

I believe that most of you are informed concerning the Bill introduced in the present Congress by Congressman Jonathan B. Bingham of New York looking toward the creation of a Registry and Archive under the jurisdiction of the Smithsonian Institution. Enclosed for your information is a copy of a Memorandum I have prepared setting forth the reasons why the Bill fails of accomplishing its stated purposes, why its enactment would be harmful, and why, therefore, the Association is opposed to the Bill.

Congressman Bingham stated that hearings on the Bill will be held in Washington this spring. I think it important that as many of you as possible should write individual letters to Congressman Bingham stating your opposition to the Bill as unnecessary, expensive, useless, and harmful. He should be addressed as:

Hon. Jonathan B. Bingham,
23rd District, New York
House of Representatives
House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

I have already sent copies of this Memorandum to museum personnel in New York City. I hope, therefore, that the out of town members will, if they can, show the Memorandum to Directors and Curators of museums in their own communities and attempt to get such museum personnel, if they agree with the Association's position, also to address communications to Congressman Bingham. It would also be useful for the out of town members to determine whether, if hearings are held in Washington this spring, any of their local museum personnel would be available to appear and testify at such hearings in opposition to the Bill.

Finally, would all members who write letters to Congressman Bingham send a copy of the letter to me so that I will know what has been written. Also, if the out of town members are successful in having local museum personnel write to Congressman Bingham, it would be helpful if I could be supplied with a copy of such letters.

The Wadsworth Atheneum portfolio of silkscreen reproductions was delivered to you yesterday and I am enclosing an invoice reporting the gift to The Whitney Museum. Would you be good enough to sign the blue copy and return it to us for our records.

I believe I mentioned that we have extended the Pattison exhibition and it will be on view through this coming Saturday. I do hope you will come in to see it, as the artist indicated that there had been some previous talk about your interest in PENOBSCOT SUMMER and CONFUCIUS. I would very much like to report to him that members of The Whitney staff had seen his show. Do come in.

I have tendered my resignation as Executive editor of ARTS Magazine effective April 22, 1966. The immediate reasons for this decision were the failure of the magazine's President and Editor to honor certain commitments made at the start of my tenure here, coupled with various pressures and considerable harassment suffered by my editorial associates at the hands of the magazine's so-called Executive Publisher, an individual whose sole qualification for his position appears to be a willingness to accept wages while engaged in vocational training.

Primarily, however, my decision was taken because of my inability to breathe freely in the midst of a pervasive "odor of mendacity," and my conviction that whatever integrity the magazine now has will shortly be compromised by the present ownership and management.

I would like to thank all those contributors with whom it has been my privilege to work during the past year-- contributors who were willing to put up with constant underpayment and frequent arrogance because of their belief in a journalistic ideal-- and also the various artists, dealers and museum officials and employees who co-operated with me during my tenure here, often with no prospect of gain, either tangible or intangible.

Lastly, I would like to express my almost inexpressible gratitude to my colleagues on the magazine, including those who due to the shortsightedness of its management resigned during the past year: Mr. Francis Kloepfel, the present Associate editor; Mrs. Sigrid Byers, the former Editorial associate; Mr. Ken Kikuchi, the former Art and Production Director; and, especially, Miss Anne Hoene, the present Review editor, who, in a somewhat Quixotic but altogether touching gesture of solidarity, has tendered her resignation along with mine.

Dear Dick:

We have just been requested to send a report of what we have in the way of Broderson paintings in our stock records and what has been sold during this season.

Consequently, I am obliged to ask you about the current situation in connection with the painting that you reported as follows: "When I ask for an invoice to be sent to me, as in the case of the Broderson, the picture is sold."

As we still have the painting in our possession, I am somewhat puzzled about the arrangement. Shall we send it on to Allentown, or what? And would you please tell me what I am to state in the audit I am sending to Broderson. Please don't consider me a pest, but you can understand that there are pressures in our business (so-called).

And how about a visit? You promised to have dinner with me. I have been starving myself awaiting this special occasion. Please let me hear from you. Meanwhile, my very best regards.

Dr. Philip Falk
5548 West 65th Street
Chicago 36, Illinois

Dear Dr. Falk:

I am sorry that we have disappointed you on two occasions, but in the field of sculpture today we have considerable problems in obtaining casts, as the foundries are so involved with mass casting prevalent today that we have been unable to get any service. However, we finally received casts of the Standing Gendarme and have one available immediately. The same holds true for Tete-a-Tete, which is also on hand. The larger Gendarme Seated was cast also, but we sold one immediately and the other is on exhibition in another gallery, and when I phoned to recall it I was advised that it had been reserved. Since the estate does not wish to sell the early cast, which we are obliged to hold in each instance, the Seated Gendarme may not be available if the dealer mentioned completes the sale. If it is available, the price is listed below with the other two which we have on hand. If you wish, we will send you photographs, although one of the young men you mentioned in your earlier letter did retain a list of the four you chose during your visit, three of which I mentioned above. The fourth is The Mourners, a cast of which we expect to receive from the foundry within the next month or so.

Please let me know whether you would like the photographs -- and do come in when you are next in town. It will be good to meet you. Incidentally, since you know Abbott Pattison, I am sure you will be pleased to learn that his exhibition has been exceedingly successful in sales, and what is more important, has been received with great enthusiasm. He is now a permanent member of our roster.

I can only offer my sincere apologies for not having realized that this painting was going to Flint and tell you that, unless it is sold at that Institution, we will be happy to send it to you "on approval" at the time of its return at the close of the exhibition, which will be early in June.

MEMORANDUM TO NEW YORK MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

(Copies to out of town members for their information)

Re: Legislation Proposed by Attorney General Lefkowitz

Some weeks ago, I sent to each of the New York members a copy of my Memorandum dated March 29, 1966 addressed to Senator Whitney North Seymour, Jr. and Assemblyman S. William Green, containing comments on and in opposition to three Bills recommended by General Lefkowitz and introduced in the New York State Senate and Assembly by Messrs. Seymour and Green, respectively. None of the Bills were acted upon before the Legislature adjourned last week. However, the Legislature will reconvene very soon and while I believe that I have taken steps to prevent final action on the Bills at this session, one can never be certain.

Accordingly, I believe that it is most important that each of you write letters to the Senator and Assemblyman (which can be one letter addressed to them jointly and a carbon copy sent to one or the other) registering your opposition to the Bills. There is nothing like a flood of letters from constituents who control votes to affect a legislator. Furthermore, these letters should not be form letters prepared by me but should indicate the personalities and personal approach of each of you.

I repeat that I believe it is most important that each of you write such a letter. It should be addressed to: Hon. Whitney North Seymour, Jr., Senator, 28th District, State of New York, 120 Broadway, New York, New York and to Hon. S. William Green, New York State Assemblyman, 72nd District, New York County, 122 East 83 Street, New York, New York.

I would appreciate it if each of you who write such a letter would make a carbon copy and send it to me so that I will know who has written and what has been said. I believe that in addition to your own knowledge of the subject, you can base your comments on the material in my Memorandum.

April 21, 1966

Dear Edith:

Your ears must have been burning or your nose itching, or whatever it is that happens to one when admiring friends are talking about them, last week end! In Des Moines, Tom Tibbs was telling Do and me about seeing you the week before. He reported that you seemed to be in good form. Your letter of the 19th, just received, sounds as if you were in good spirits and this I'm sure reflects a degree of better health. Three cheers!

Five or six weeks of Arizona and the Netherland West Indies finally enabled me to shake off a virus which landed on me the latter part of January. At last things are turning green and prospects for a good spring and summer are brightening.

Although as you will recall, Do and I felt that we would like to clear at least $9,000 on the sale of Young Sea Dog with Friend Billy, you are in the best position to assess the possibilities and we are willing to abide by your decision. Having made up our minds to give it up, howbeit reluctantly, and not wishing to protract the matter into the indefinite future, we take your word for it that $8,000 is as much as we can properly expect to realize and accept your offer gratefully. We do appreciate very much indeed your efforts to dispose of it for us and can think of no one we'd rather entrust it to for as long as you may own it.

We are planning to be in New York at the time of the AFA annual meeting scheduled, I believe, for Thursday, May 12th and through the next week end. Do has United Nations Association meetings on the 16th. We'll give you a call as soon as possible after we reach town and hope for a visit.

Love from us both,

Colby College Art Museum
Waterville, Maine 04901

Dear Mr. Carpenter:

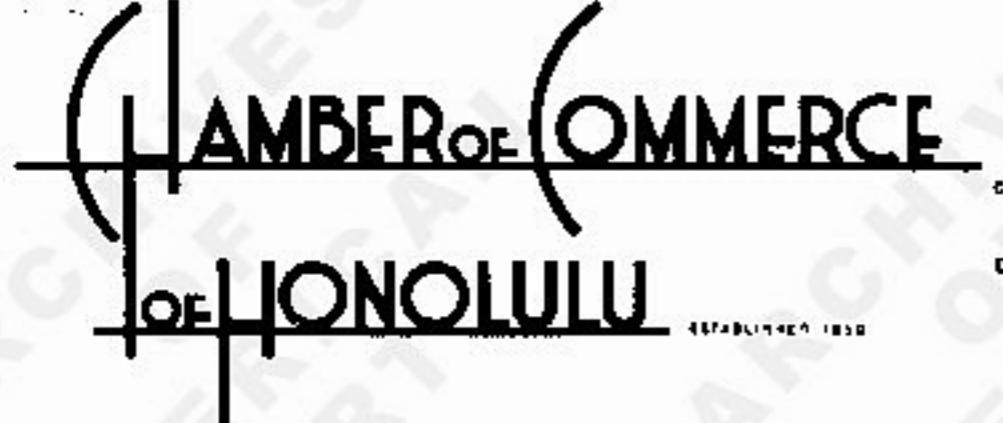

I delayed answering your letter in the hope of finding some unfinished paintings or drawings which would fit in with your exhibition entitled, "Art in the Making." However, with the exception of a Sheeler unfinished sketch, which we are including in our forthcoming show, there is nothing that will fit the category mentioned. It is customary for the artist to destroy anything which does not satisfy him. Of course, there are preliminary drawings on occasion, but these are complete as such and are sold as finished pictures, as are the oils or tempuras which may have been based on the drawings. But in all such cases the artists consider them independent works of art. Those that they consider incomplete are customarily destroyed.

If you should be in town before the Gallery closes for the summer (June 30th), I will be very glad to show you photographs of such combinations which you may find appropriate for your exhibition. It will be nice to see you again.

Sincerely,

We learned with interest of your efforts to encourage the establishment of additional gallery facilities in Honolulu.

It is in keeping with your thoughts that it is difficult to understand why with the increase in our population and the new and expanded interest shown in the various aspects of art and culture that so few galleries operate here.

Aside from your personal interest in having a high quality gallery establish itself in Honolulu, we feel that such an operation would add much to the development of this area. We, therefore, heartily concur with your efforts to find interest towards this end.

Please call on us if we can be of assistance to you.

Folk Art paintings and Sculpture I gave to you some years ago.

I have recently engaged a Manager to take care of my personal affairs and in examining my records for the past ten years, he called my attention to the fact that I did not have an official record of my gift to The Wadsworth Atheneum. Would it be possible for you to send me a note referring to this gift, so that it can be properly listed in the records. Also, are there any plans for showing this material or is the collection per se of no interest to the institution? Won't you please be frank and write me accordingly. I would be glad to have it returned if the latter, as there is increased interest throughout the country and I would like to see these objects used constructively. I am sure you will understand my position in the matter.

I do hope that I will have the pleasure of seeing you and Elinor before you move to Chicago. In any event, good luck in your new home - and best regards.

Dear Mr. Watson:

The reason for the long delay in my reply to your letter is based on the problem of getting the green light from the attorney representing the Stuart Davis estate. He advised me several days ago - for the fifth or sixth time - that clearance has not come through.

Actually, there are very few paintings relating to the period of BLUES SINGER, but I will check into it further with Mrs. Davis who, of course, will control the new prices.

As soon as I am in a position to make any comment on the subject, I will communicate with you, as I think it would make an interesting association with your museum context.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Edith:

Enclosed please find a copy of Mr. Lee Schoen's letter of March 25 which arrived at the office during my recent vacation.

I believe the letter to be self-explanatory but wish to point out that I think it would be a basis for your securing the return of the deposit for alterations which you left at the hotel.

Mr. Schoen reiterates what we had previously told you-- that is, that no new Certificate of Occupancy can be secured until all alteration work in the hotel is completed.

Dear Jack:

Forgive me for being so lax, but I have to wait until our Treasurer is in town to have a check signed.

Enclosed you will find $5000. to be applied to the Building Fund. The sum comprises a combination of the Foundation and the Gallery, which is now making its first large gift to a museum. I feel it will be no loss - in making the combination - to your Purchase Fund, as your current exhibition indicates that the donors are becoming quite plentiful. In any event, I much prefer doing it with cash rather than a painting for auction, as many years ago I decided against the latter policy, which has become so prevalent, not only in connection with art institutions, but for every type of charity, including the Institution for Unwed Mothers.

I hope I will see you soon. Incidentally, don't miss the Pattison exhibition, which continues for two more weeks.
I am sorry you missed the opening, but I am sure you will see much more of the show under normal circumstances.

Best regards.

Dear Mr. Cheney:

Finally, after much coaxing, I obtained a large collection of prints from our photographer and am sending these to you under separate cover, together with a book on Zorach published for the Whitney Museum in 1959 on the occasion of his Retrospective Exhibition held there.

Now that Zorach's son has taken over all the details, we know exactly what is available or can be cast to order where the edition is still incomplete. In several instances, only one or two casts have been sold. Unlike many sculptors still functioning today, Zorach has always been very careful about keeping his editions very low - no more than three or, on a few occasions, up to six. The latter, of course, would not apply to the larger figures.

The photographs really provide a wide range in the monumental group, including single figures, groups and a large-scale PUMA. Several of these are in his studio, available immediately and others will have to be cast to order. An asterisk on our list will indicate which is which. I am also sending you a biographical record, which may be useful to you in talking to the committee.

I trust that all this material will aid you in presenting your suggestion to the Board. It was so nice to meet you and I hope to have the pleasure soon again.

Sincerely yours,

KCH/tm

P. S. Incidentally, I was at the Museum of Early American Folk Art this afternoon and saw an Edward Hicks PEACEABLE KINGDOM which belongs to Cooperstown. I don't know whether you have that recorded or not, but a catalog of the show or the collection has been published recently and will include the information. On the other hand, you might write directly to Mary Black, the Director of the Museum, who ~~obliged~~ ^{will give} complete data in relation to this painting.

Dear Mrs. Halpert:

Our Art for Collectors III exhibition, which has just closed, was a great success. We very much appreciate your participation in it, and it is only through the dealers' cooperation that these exhibitions can be held.

Unfortunately, the only object sold in this exhibition from those items you consigned to us was the Ben Shahn Maximus. Our public showed considerable interest in the works you lent, and your participation added a great deal to this exhibition. We hope you will be able to join us in the future with other exhibitions of this type.

Again, our sincere thanks for your participation.

You will be receiving soon from our comptroller a check to cover the Shahn. Also, we plan to ship to you on Monday, April 25, those unsold objects consigned to this exhibition.

Dear Irving:

As I mentioned in our conversation yesterday, all the

be rubbed down - but three were finished with gold leaf and now will have to be releafed completely.
Would you be good enough to contact your insurance broker and we will send on the invoice for him to take care of after the job will have been completed.

I am pleased that you had some success with the show and hope that you are equally pleased with the overall reception. Incidentally, if you have duplicate clippings, I would greatly appreciate having them for our archives.

P.S. You might advise your purchasers that during the past month the prices on Rattner, Shahn and Weber to-because interest in our group has been developing at a high pace.

Dear Mr. Lessan:

On April 2nd I wrote explaining why I could not give you an estimate of the transportation and crating charges on the Shahn exhibition, but at the same time I confirmed our promise to supply you with an exhibition of his work. In some instances - in the event that you want a sizeable show - it would be necessary to borrow paintings and drawings from other institutions and private collections. On the other hand, if the show is limited in size, we can take care of the entire matter directly from the Gallery. As you probably know, it takes considerable time to complete correspondence in the event of loans from outside collections and if you plan the larger exhibition, it would be important to start writing or sending out requests to ascertain whether the items will be available at the specified date. Thus, I am writing to you now again in the hope that I will hear from you very shortly.

I hope to have your reply by return mail. Many thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

At times I worry that you may think we are not aware of how much we all owe you in so very many ways. The inestimable value that our association with you has had is constantly brought to our attention, but the inspiration and faith you have given to us (in this world that sometimes seems to have no heart or soul) has been even more important.

I am writing you this because I would be heart-broken if you were ever disappointed in us, or felt even for a moment that we didn't appreciate our association with you. This is something that all of us, Morris, Bill and I are deeply grateful for.

If our letters are inexcusably scarce, I hope you understand the sheer panic we all have been compelled to work under, especially these past two years.

Edith, I do so hope you are feeling better, as I know you have had such a terrible time with your ear and other problems.

Morris is eagerly looking forward to having your show in the fall, if this suits you, and we will all come (even Bill this time.)

With much love as ever,

Dear Mr. Madigan,

I tried phoning you this afternoon, but the Gallery had already closed.

Due to an oversight on my part, Edward Hicks "The Peaceable Kingdom", was not included among the group of paintings consigned to your "Past and Present" show. Shall we have it crated and shipped air express to you, or will someone from the Corcoran be in New York at the beginning of the week who might carry it back by hand? It is a small painting and would carry easily.

I feel badly about this, and hope some arrangement can be made for getting the painting to you in time.

Dear Edith:

The Whitney Museum will open its new building on Madison Avenue and 75th Street in late September. To celebrate this important step in our development, we are planning a large exhibition of American painting and sculpture, from their beginnings in Colonial times to the present. The exhibition, which will occupy the whole building, will number about 350 works. Our aim is to show only works of the highest quality, and to make the exhibition one of the most complete presentations so far of the creative art of our country. The dates will be September 27 through November 27, 1966.

In the 20th-century section of the exhibition we are showing mostly works from the Whitney's permanent collection. However, in a few cases where we do not own important examples, we are requesting loans. One of these is a fine watercolor still life by Charles Demuth. Would you be willing to lend your Poppies? It is such an outstanding example of Demuth's work that it would add greatly to the quality of the exhibition, and I do hope that you will be willing to lend it.

With my best,

Sincerely yours,
